المعرفة النظرية وتطبيقها

Chomsky's generative grammar belongs to which view of language acquisition?

A) Behaviorism
B) Social constructivism
C) Connectionism
D) Innatism (nativism)

2

أصول تدريس اللغة

Recognising word endings, word order and sentence patterns while listening (bottom-up processing) draws mainly on the learner's ___ competence.

A) sociolinguistic
B) strategic
C) discourse
D) grammatical (linguistic)

3

أصول تدريس اللغة

Following a set of spoken classroom instructions in order to complete a task mainly develops:

A) reading
B) writing
C) handwriting
D) listening

4

أصول تدريس اللغة

Practising adjacency pairs (e.g., offer–acceptance) and discourse markers such as 'well' and 'anyway' mainly develops:

A) spelling accuracy
B) handwriting
C) reading speed
D) speaking (managing a conversation)

5

أصول تدريس اللغة

Encouraging students to read silently, rather than aloud, mainly helps to build their reading:

A) spelling
B) handwriting
C) pronunciation accuracy
D) fluency (speed with comprehension)

أصول تدريس اللغة 6

A reader who works out an unfamiliar word from its prefix, root and suffix, and follows grammatical cues and discourse markers, is using a ___ strategy.

A) top-down
B) field-dependent
C) concept-driven
D) bottom-up

أصول تدريس اللغة 7

Teaching students the features of different text types mainly helps them decide on the appropriate ___ when they write.

A) speed of handwriting
B) length of the title
C) spelling of single words
D) tense, vocabulary and register

أصول تدريس اللغة 8

Which of the following belongs to the PRE-writing stage?

A) Proofreading for spelling
B) Publishing the final copy
C) Revising after peer feedback
D) Freewriting to generate ideas

أصول تدريس اللغة 9

A) What I did last weekend
B) My daily routine
C) A famous event in history
D) My plans for the coming Eid holiday

أصول تدريس اللغة 13

Rejecting translation, this method teaches only through the target language, as children pick up their mother tongue, and is often called the 'natural method'. It is:

A) The Silent Way
B) Community Language Learning
C) Suggestopedia
D) The Direct Method

أصول تدريس اللغة 14

In pairs, one student draws a simple map of his neighbourhood and his partner writes directions to a place on it; then they test whether the directions work. This is best described as a ___ activity.

A) repetition
B) substitution
C) translation
D) communicative

أصول تدريس اللغة 15

Each group member studies a different section of a text, discusses it with members from other groups who had the same section, and then teaches it to the home group. This technique is:

A) brainstorming
B) think-pair-share
C) gamification
D) jigsaw

أصول تدريس اللغة 16

Which task gives the best evidence of a student's listening comprehension?

A) Copying words correctly from the board
B) Reading a passage aloud
C) Skimming a text for its main idea
D) Retelling or summarising the main points of a talk they heard

أصول تدريس اللغة 17

A C-test, in which the second half of every second word is deleted, mainly requires learners to:

A) speak with an examiner
B) write a free essay
C) listen to a recording
D) read and reconstruct a written text

أصول تدريس اللغة 18

When choosing a recording for a listening lesson, which factor most affects whether learners stay engaged and follow it?

A) The exact number of words in the text
B) The recording's file format
C) Whether the speaker is male or female
D) How interesting the topic is to the learners

أصول تدريس اللغة 19

Before playing a recording, a teacher shows the title and asks pairs to write questions they expect the speaker to answer. This is a typical ___ activity.

A) while-listening
B) post-listening
C) note-taking
D) pre-listening

أصول تدريس اللغة 20

Pairs act out an extended conversation as a customer and a shop assistant, practising English while enjoying themselves. This activity is:

A) Show-and-tell
B) Dictation
C) Gap-filling
D) Role-play

أصول تدريس اللغة 21

While students perform a role-play, the teacher should mainly:

A) take over the dialogue whenever a student hesitates
B) stop each pair to correct every error immediately
C) leave the room so students feel free
D) monitor and support as a facilitator, noting points for later feedback

أصول تدريس اللغة 22

A teacher trains learners to use phrases such as 'Sorry, could you say that again?' and 'What do you call the thing that…?' to fix breakdowns in conversation. These are:

A) affective strategies
B) avoidance strategies
C) memory strategies
D) repair strategies

أصول تدريس اللغة 23

A reading teacher first asks what learners already know and what interests them about the topic, and focuses on the overall meaning before details. This reflects a ___ approach.

A) bottom-up
B) phonics-based
C) word-by-word
D) top-down

أصول تدريس اللغة 24

Students highlight words such as 'however', 'as a result' and 'this' in a text and explain what each one links. The skill being developed is:

A) skimming for the gist
B) guessing word meaning
C) scanning for numbers
D) recognizing text cohesion

أصول تدريس اللغة 25

Which statement about remembering new words is TRUE?

A) A word met once in a rich context is never forgotten
B) Recycling words slows down learning
C) Rare words are remembered faster than common ones
D) The more often learners meet a word, the more easily they recall it

أصول تدريس اللغة 26

A learner writes each new word, looks at it carefully, practises using it and reviews it several times during the week. This routine mainly builds:

A) listening
B) intonation
C) grammar
D) vocabulary

أصول تدريس اللغة 27

A teacher writes 'desert' on the board and students add 'sand', 'camel', 'hot' and 'dunes'. The relationship between these words is mainly:

A) synonymy
B) homophony
C) antonymy
D) association

أصول تدريس اللغة 28

With complete beginners, a writing lesson usually starts by giving learners:

A) a free topic with no support
B) a research paper to summarize
C) a full essay to rewrite from memory
D) key words to build simple sentences from

التصميم التعليمي 29

A teacher is planning a single lesson on kitchen utensils. Which is the most appropriate objective?

A) By the end of the year, students will appreciate cooking vocabulary.
B) By the end of the semester, students will label international kitchen tools.
C) By the end of the lesson, students will know about different household items.
D) By the end of the lesson, students will be able to use the names of five kitchen utensils in sentences.

التصميم التعليمي 30

Giving students the course syllabus at the start of the term mainly helps the teacher to:

A) grade their homework
B) avoid assessment
C) replace daily lesson plans
D) inform them of the expected learning outcomes

التصميم التعليمي 31

After finishing a unit, a teacher reviews what worked and what did not, and changes her next lessons accordingly. This phase of the teaching cycle is:

A) preparation
B) implementation
C) administration
D) reflection

التصميم التعليمي 32

According to the integrated-skills view, an L2 programme should ideally:

A) teach listening and speaking for a whole year before any reading
B) teach only reading and writing
C) teach each skill in a separate course with no links
D) develop the four skills together, linked within lessons

التصميم التعليمي 33

Which tool lets several students write and edit the same document online at the same time?

A) Adobe Acrobat Reader
B) Microsoft Publisher
C) Audacity
D) Google Docs

التصميم التعليمي 34

Grammarly, which checks grammar, spelling and style, mainly supports which skill?

A) Listening
B) Reading aloud
C) Speaking
D) Writing

التصميم التعليمي 35

Students type their essays in Microsoft Word. Which built-in feature helps them find and fix misspelled words?

A) Word count
B) Thesaurus
C) Translate
D) Spelling checker

التصميم التعليمي 36

EFL students raised in collectivist cultures are often reluctant to:

A) do homework
B) help classmates
C) work in groups
D) ask questions in front of the whole class

التصميم التعليمي 37

Which teacher behaviour is MOST likely to discourage students from participating?

A) Praising effort
B) Building on partly correct answers
C) Giving enough wait time
D) Criticising their answers immediately in front of the class

التصميم التعليمي 38

Which verb should be avoided when writing a measurable lesson objective?

A) list
B) identify
C) label
D) understand

التصميم التعليمي 39

For a quiet, introverted student, which task is usually most comfortable?

A) A whole-class debate
B) A public role-play
C) A group competition
D) An independent project

المعرفة النظرية وتطبيقها 40

In Chomsky's terms, the actual use of language in real situations — what speakers really say, including slips — is called:

A) competence
B) interlanguage
C) interference
D) performance

المعرفة النظرية وتطبيقها 41

A view of writing that sees every text as shaped by the writer's place, community and local surroundings is the:

A) Formalist theory
B) Behaviorist theory
C) Cognitive theory
D) Ecological theory

المعرفة النظرية وتطبيقها 42

While speaking, Faisal says 'She don't… doesn't like tea' and fixes the error himself. This self-repair best shows his:

A) lack of competence
B) cultural awareness
C) fossilization
D) metalinguistic awareness

المعرفة النظرية وتطبيقها 43

A shy, anxious learner takes in little even from comprehensible input, while a confident, motivated one takes in much more. Krashen explains this with the:

A) Natural Order Hypothesis
B) Acquisition–Learning Hypothesis
C) Monitor Hypothesis
D) Affective Filter Hypothesis

المعرفة النظرية وتطبيقها 44

L1 features that differ from the L2, if they keep transferring negatively and are never noticed or corrected, may finally lead to:

A) positive transfer
B) native-like pronunciation
C) balanced bilingualism
D) fossilization

المعرفة النظرية وتطبيقها 45

Krashen's claim that picking up a second language resembles the way children develop their mother tongue belongs to the:

A) Monitor Hypothesis
B) Natural Order Hypothesis
C) Affective Filter Hypothesis
D) Acquisition–Learning Hypothesis

المعرفة النظرية وتطبيقها 46

An airline runs an English course designed around the language its cabin crew need on the job. This is an example of:

A) General English
B) English for Academic Purposes (EAP)
C) English as a Lingua Franca
D) English for Specific Purposes (ESP)

المعرفة النظرية وتطبيقها 47

In the '5 R's' reflection framework, explaining a classroom event by linking it to a theory such as Vygotsky's ZPD is the stage of:

A) Reporting
B) Reconstructing
C) Responding
D) Reasoning

المعرفة اللغوية 48

The most noticeable difference between British and American English that learners meet is in:

A) grammar
B) basic word order
C) the alphabet
D) vocabulary

المعرفة اللغوية 49

The plural ending in 'oxen' and 'children' is a remnant of:

A) borrowing from French
B) modern American usage
C) Latin plural rules
D) Old English

المعرفة اللغوية 50

Which of the following lists contains only design features of human language?

A) productivity, generalization, cultural transmission
B) arbitrariness, imitation, translation
C) displacement, duality, receptiveness
D) arbitrariness, rapid fading, displacement

المعرفة اللغوية 51

The statement 'every language follows rules and patterns at the level of sounds, words and sentences' shows that language is:

A) random
B) fixed and unchanging
C) purely visual
D) systematic

المعرفة اللغوية 52

Which past participle form is most common in American English?

A) learnt
B) spelt
C) dreamt
D) learned

المعرفة اللغوية 53

American English and Australian English both grew out of the English taken overseas by settlers from:

A) Canada
B) Germany
C) France
D) England

المعرفة اللغوية 54

The ability of human language to refer to things that are not present in the immediate environment is:

A) Duality
B) Diversity
C) Discreteness
D) Displacement

المعرفة اللغوية 55

The feature that allows speakers to create and understand an infinite number of new messages is:

A) Arbitrariness
B) Duality
C) Displacement
D) Creativity (productivity)

المعرفة اللغوية 56

The relationship between a linguistic form and its meaning is generally:

A) Onomatopoeic
B) Informative
C) Non-directional
D) Arbitrary

المعرفة اللغوية 57

The main problem with theories about the origin of language is that they:

A) Are based on observation
B) Are related to primates
C) Are too few
D) Lack scientific evidence

المعرفة اللغوية 58

A set of signals and symbols used for communication is the definition of:

A) Morphology
B) Phonology
C) Syntax
D) Language

المعرفة اللغوية 59

The scientific study of language is called:

A) Literature
B) Rhetoric
C) Semantics only
D) Linguistics

المعرفة اللغوية 60

'Don't split infinitives' is an example of a _____ rule.

A) descriptive
B) generative
C) universal
D) prescriptive

الإجابات والشرح

1 D) Innatism (nativism)

Chomsky's generative grammar rests on an innate language capacity, which is the innatist (nativist) view.

القواعد التوليدية لتشومسكي تقوم على قدرة لغوية فطرية = الفطرية.

2 D) grammatical (linguistic)

Bottom-up processing builds meaning from sounds, words and grammar, so it draws on grammatical (linguistic) competence. Top-down processing relies on background knowledge and context.

المعالجة من الأسفل تبني المعنى من الأصوات والكلمات والقواعد، فتعتمد على المعرفة اللغوية (النحوية). أما المعالجة من الأعلى فتعتمد على الخلفية والسياق.

3 D) listening

Understanding spoken instructions and putting them in order before acting is primarily a listening skill.

فهم التعليمات الشفهية وترتيبها قبل التنفيذ عمل استماع بالدرجة الأولى.

4 D) speaking (managing a conversation)

Adjacency pairs and discourse markers organise turn-taking and link speech, so they mainly develop speaking and conversation management.

الأزواج المتجاورة وأدوات الخطاب تنظّم تبادل الأدوار وربط الكلام في المحادثة، فأكثر ما تخدمه مهارة التحدث.

5 D) fluency (speed with comprehension)

Silent reading is faster and focuses on meaning, so it builds reading fluency (speed with comprehension). Reading aloud serves pronunciation accuracy.

القراءة الصامتة أسرع وتركّز على المعنى فتبني طلاقة القراءة والفهم، أما الجهرية فتخدم دقة النطق وفك الرموز.

6 D) bottom-up

Using clues inside the text, such as prefixes, roots, suffixes, grammar and discourse markers, is a bottom-up strategy.

الاعتماد على الإشارات اللغوية داخل النص (اللواحق والسوابق والقواعد وأدوات الربط) معالجة من الأسفل إلى الأعلى.

7 D) tense, vocabulary and register

Each text type has typical tense, vocabulary and register, so knowing its features guides the writer's choices.

كل نوع نص (تقرير، رسالة شكوى، قصة) له زمن ومفردات ومستوى رسمية معتاد، فمعرفته توجّه اختيارات الكاتب.

8 D) Freewriting to generate ideas

Freewriting generates ideas before drafting, like brainstorming, so it belongs to the pre-writing stage.

الكتابة الحرة مثل العصف الذهني: توليد أفكار قبل كتابة المسودة، فهي من مرحلة ما قبل الكتابة.

9 D) persuasive

A persuasive essay takes a position and supports it with facts, logic and expert opinion. An expository essay only explains.

الإقناعي يتبنى موقفاً ويدعمه بالأدلة والمنطق ليقنع القارئ؛ التفسيري يشرح فقط دون أن يتبنى موقفاً.

10 D) cohesion and text organisation

This contrast, described by Kaplan as contrastive rhetoric, concerns how ideas are linked and the text is organised, that is, cohesion.

هذا ما يسميه Kaplan البلاغة التقابلية: الفرق في طريقة ربط الأفكار وتنظيم النص، أي في التماسك.

11 D) relies less on full stops, joining clauses with 'wa'

Arabic joins long sentences with 'wa' and uses fewer full stops, and learners transfer this habit into English run-on sentences.

العربية تربط الجمل الطويلة بالواو وتقل فيها النقطة، فينقل الطالب ذلك إلى الإنجليزية؛ والعلاج تدريس علامات الترقيم صراحة.

12 D) My plans for the coming Eid holiday

A topic about coming plans naturally requires the target form 'be going to' for the future, whereas past events or routines need other tenses.

الموضوع المناسب يستدعي الزمن المستهدف بشكل طبيعي: الخطط القادمة تحتاج المستقبل، أما عطلة مضت فتحتاج الماضي والروتين يحتاج المضارع البسيط.

13 D) The Direct Method

The Direct Method rejects translation and teaches through the target language only, imitating how children acquire their mother tongue, so it is called the 'natural method'.

الطريقة المباشرة سُميت الطبيعية لأنها تحاكي اكتساب الطفل للغته، وجاءت رداً على الترجمة النحوية؛ اللغة الهدف فقط والتركيز على الكلام.

14 D) communicative

The task has a real purpose, an information exchange and a checkable outcome, so it is a communicative activity rather than mechanical drilling.

المهمة لها هدف حقيقي ونتيجة يُتحقق منها وتبادل معلومات، فهي نشاط تواصلي لا تدريب آلي.

15 D) jigsaw

In a jigsaw each learner masters one part and then teaches it to the home group, so everyone depends on the others.

في الجيكسو يتقن كل طالب جزءاً ثم يعلّمه لزملائه، فيعتمد الجميع على بعضهم لفهم النص كاملاً.

16 D) Retelling or summarising the main points of a talk they heard

Retelling or summarising a talk shows that the student understood what was heard. The other options measure writing or reading.

التلخيص أو إعادة الحكي بعد الاستماع يثبت أن الطالب فهم ما سمع؛ بقية الخيارات تقيس الكتابة أو القراءة.

17 D) read and reconstruct a written text

A C-test is a damaged written text, so learners must read it and reconstruct the missing half-words, which tests reading and general proficiency.

اختبار C نص مكتوب ناقص؛ على الطالب قراءته وإكمال أنصاف الكلمات، فهو يعتمد على القراءة والكفاءة العامة.

18 D) How interesting the topic is to the learners

An interesting topic holds learners' attention so they follow and understand more. The other factors do not affect engagement as much.

الموضوع الممتع للطلاب يشدّ انتباههم فيتابعون ويفهمون أكثر؛ بقية الخيارات لا تؤثر في التفاعل بنفس الدرجة.

19 D) pre-listening

Writing expected questions from the title before playing the recording is prediction and preparation, so it is a pre-listening activity.

كتابة أسئلة متوقعة قبل التشغيل تهيئة وتوقّع = نشاط ما قبل الاستماع. التدوين أثناء الاستماع، والتلخيص بعده.

20 D) Role-play

Acting out an extended conversation in assigned characters is role-play, which combines language practice with enjoyment.

تقمّص شخصيات في حوار ممتد بين طالبين أو ثلاثة = لعب الأدوار، ويجمع بين ممارسة اللغة والمتعة.

21 D) monitor and support as a facilitator, noting points for later feedback

During role-play the teacher acts as a facilitator, monitoring and supporting while delaying correction, not taking over or interrupting.

دور المعلم في لعب الأدوار ميسّر يراقب ويدعم ويؤجل التصحيح؛ لا يتكلم بدلهم ولا يقاطعهم.

22 D) repair strategies

Phrases that ask for repetition or help fix communication breakdowns are repair strategies, part of strategic competence.

عبارات طلب الإعادة والمساعدة تصلح انقطاع التواصل = استراتيجيات الإصلاح (جزء من الكفاية الاستراتيجية).

23 D) top-down

Starting from prior knowledge and interests and focusing on overall meaning before details is a top-down approach.

البدء بالمعرفة السابقة والاهتمامات والمعنى العام = المعالجة من أعلى إلى أسفل.

24 D) recognizing text cohesion

Tracking linking words and reference such as 'however' and 'this' and what they connect develops recognition of text cohesion.

تتبّع أدوات الربط والإحالة وكيف تربط الأفكار = فهم ترابط النص (cohesion).

25 D) The more often learners meet a word, the more easily they recall it

Repeated encounters (recycling) make a word easier to recall, whereas a single meeting is not enough.

تكرار مصادفة الكلمة (التدوير) يسهّل تذكرها؛ مرة واحدة لا تكفي.

26 D) vocabulary

Writing, studying, practising and reviewing each new word over the week is a routine for building vocabulary.

كتابة الكلمة والنظر إليها والتدرّب عليها ومراجعتها = روتين لحفظ المفردات.

27 D) association

Words that come to mind with the same topic, like 'sand', 'camel' and 'hot' for 'desert', are linked by association, not synonymy or antonymy.

كلمات مرتبطة بالموضوع نفسه في الذهن وليست مترادفة ولا متضادة = تداعي/ترابط المعاني.

28 D) key words to build simple sentences from

Complete beginners need key words first, from which they build short simple sentences before moving to more demanding writing.

المبتدئ يحتاج الكلمات أولاً ليبني منها جملاً قصيرة، ثم يتدرج.

29 D) By the end of the lesson, students will be able to use the names of five kitchen utensils in sentences.

A lesson objective should fit the lesson, be tied to its topic and use an observable, measurable verb such as 'use', not 'appreciate' or 'know'.

هدف الدرس يكون بحدود الدرس نفسه، ومرتبطاً بموضوعه تحديداً، وبفعل قابل للملاحظة والقياس (use)، لا appreciate ولا know.

30 D) inform them of the expected learning outcomes

Giving the syllabus at the start informs students of the content, schedule and expected learning outcomes.

توزيع المنهج يوضح للطلاب المحتوى والجدول والنواتج المتوقعة من البداية.

31 D) reflection

Reflection is the phase after implementation in which the teacher judges what worked and adjusts later teaching.

مرحلة التأمل تأتي بعد التنفيذ: الحكم على نجاح التعلم وتعديل التدريس القادم.

32 D) develop the four skills together, linked within lessons

Real communication uses the skills together, so an integrated-skills programme develops the four skills together within lessons.

التواصل الحقيقي يستعمل المهارات معاً، فالأفضل ربطها في الدرس الواحد (قراءة ثم نقاش ثم كتابة) بمستويات تناسب الطلاب.

---

33 D) Google Docs

Google Docs allows several students to write and edit the same document online at the same time, which suits collaborative assignments.

مستندات قوقل تسمح بالكتابة والتعديل الجماعي في الوقت نفسه، وهي مناسبة للواجبات التعاونية.

---

34 D) Writing

Grammarly checks written text for grammar, spelling and style, so it mainly supports writing.

Grammarly أداة تدقيق للنص المكتوب، فهي تخدم الكتابة.

---

35 D) Spelling checker

The spelling checker finds misspelled words and suggests corrections. The thesaurus gives synonyms and word count gives length.

مدقق الإملاء يحدد الكلمات الخاطئة ويقترح الصحيح؛ المكنز للمترادفات، وعدّاد الكلمات للطول.

36 D) ask questions in front of the whole class

In collectivist cultures students often avoid standing out alone, so they are reluctant to ask questions in front of the whole class.

في الثقافات الجماعية يتجنب الطالب الظهور منفرداً أو ما قد يُفهم إحراجاً للمعلم، فيقل سؤاله أمام الجميع؛ المجموعات الصغيرة تساعده.

37 D) Criticising their answers immediately in front of the class

Immediate criticism in front of peers raises anxiety and makes students avoid participating, unlike praise, wait time and building on answers.

النقد الفوري أمام الزملاء يرفع القلق ويجعل الطالب يتجنب المشاركة، بعكس الثناء على الجهد ووقت الانتظار.

38 D) understand

'Understand' cannot be observed or measured directly, while list, label and identify are behavioural verbs.

understand لا يُلاحظ ولا يُقاس مباشرة؛ list وlabel وidentify أفعال سلوكية.

39 D) An independent project

An introverted student usually feels most comfortable with quiet individual work such as an independent project.

الانطوائي يرتاح للعمل الفردي الهادئ كالمشروع المستقل.

40 D) performance

In Chomsky's terms, performance is the actual use of language in real situations, including slips. Competence is the implicit knowledge of the system.

الأداء هو الاستعمال الفعلي للغة، والكفاية هي المعرفة الضمنية بنظامها.

41 D) Ecological theory

Ecological theory sees writing as shaped by the writer's place, community and local context, while cognitive theory focuses on mental processes.

النظرية البيئية ترى الكتابة متأثرة بالمكان والمجتمع والسياق المحلي، بينما المعرفية تركز على عمليات الكاتب الذهنية.

42 D) metalinguistic awareness

Correcting his own error shows metalinguistic awareness: he knows the rule and monitors his language. The error was a performance slip, not lack of competence.

تصحيح الطالب لنفسه يدل على وعيه بالقاعدة وقدرته على مراقبة لغته؛ الخطأ هنا زلة أداء وليس نقصاً في الكفاية.

43 D) Affective Filter Hypothesis

Krashen's Affective Filter Hypothesis says anxiety and low motivation raise the filter and block input, while confidence and motivation lower it.

القلق وضعف الدافعية يرفعان المصفاة الوجدانية فيُحجب المدخل، والثقة والدافعية تخفضانها.

44 D) fossilization

When L1 differences keep causing negative transfer and the errors are never noticed or corrected, they may become permanent, which is fossilization.

الاختلاف بين اللغتين يسبب نقلاً سلبياً، وإذا تكرر الخطأ دون انتباه أو تغذية راجعة قد يثبت ويتحجر.

45 D) Acquisition–Learning Hypothesis

Krashen's Acquisition-Learning Hypothesis distinguishes subconscious acquisition, like a child's, from conscious learning.

التمييز بين الاكتساب اللاواعي (مثل الطفل) والتعلم الواعي = فرضية الاكتساب والتعلم.

46 D) English for Specific Purposes (ESP)

A course designed around the specific language needs of cabin crew at work is English for Specific Purposes (ESP).

برنامج مصمم لاحتياجات الموظفين اللغوية في بيئة عملهم = الإنجليزية لأغراض خاصة.

47 D) Reasoning

In the 5 R's framework, Reasoning means explaining an event by linking it to theory or literature, such as Vygotsky's ZPD.

Reasoning = تفسير الموقف وربطه بالنظرية والأدبيات.

48 D) vocabulary

The clearest differences between British and American English are in vocabulary (lift/elevator), followed by spelling and pronunciation. Grammar and word order are very similar.

الفروق الأوضح في المفردات (lift/elevator) ثم التهجئة والنطق؛ أما القواعد وترتيب الكلمات فمتقاربة جداً.

49 D) Old English

The -en plural in 'oxen' and 'children' is a remnant of an Old English plural ending that survives in a few words.

-en لاحقة جمع قديمة من الإنجليزية القديمة بقيت في كلمات قليلة.

50 D) arbitrariness, rapid fading, displacement

Arbitrariness, rapid fading and displacement are all Hockett's design features. Generalization, receptiveness and imitation are not on his list.

الاعتباطية والتلاشي السريع والإزاحة من خصائص هوكت؛ imitationg receptivenessg generalization ليست منها.

51 D) systematic

Language is systematic because it follows rules and patterns at every level: sounds, words and sentences.

اللغة نظام له قواعد وأنماط في كل مستوياتها.

52 D) learned

American English prefers the -ed past participle (learned), while British English sometimes uses -t (learnt).

الأمريكية تفضّل -ed (learned, dreamed)، والبريطانية تستعمل أحياناً -t (learnt).

---

53 D) England

Settlers from England took their language overseas to America and then Australia, where each variety developed locally.

المستوطنون القادمون من إنجلترا نقلوا لغتهم إلى أمريكا ثم أستراليا، ثم تطوّر كل فرع محلياً.

54 D) Displacement

Displacement is the feature that lets language refer to things not present in the immediate environment, such as past or future events.

الإزاحة.

55 D) Creativity (productivity)

Creativity (productivity) lets speakers produce and understand an unlimited number of new messages.

الإبداعية.

56 D) Arbitrary

The link between a linguistic form and its meaning is generally arbitrary: there is no natural connection between the word and the thing.

اعتباطية.

57 D) Lack scientific evidence

The main problem with theories of language origin is that they lack scientific evidence, since early language left no record.

لا دليل علمي.

58 D) Language

Language is defined as a set of signals and symbols used for communication.

اللغة.

---

59 D) Linguistics

Linguistics is the scientific study of language.

اللسانيات.

60 D) prescriptive

A prescriptive rule tells people how language should be used, such as 'Don't split infinitives'; descriptive rules only describe actual usage.

معياري.
